Colossians Lesson

Answer Sheet for New Living Translation (NLT)

The Apostle Paul's ministry can be easily divided into two parts: his pre-prison ministry and his prison ministry. During the pre-prison ministry of the Apostle Paul, the revelation of the Mystery concerning the Body of Christ was in the process of being revealed. However, it is not until you come to the prison letters of the Apostle Paul that you find the instruction based upon the completed revelation of God concerning the Body of Christ. The Apostle Paul wrote the book of Colossians during his confinement in a Roman prison and it is therefore a prison letter. The book of Colossians teaches us about the Body of Christ as it was fully revealed to the Apostle Paul. We find, therefore, in the book of Colossians some very important doctrines of the Church, the Body of Christ.

Of all the cities to which the Apostle Paul sent letters, Colossae was the only one that Paul never had the opportunity to visit. His information concerning the needs of the church at Colossae came through the word of others. It seems evident that Epaphras was one of the key members of the church at Colossae and possibly even the founder.

We would suggest that you begin by reading the epistle of Colossians through at least once before you start to answer the questions in this lesson. Remember to begin in prayer and to continue in prayer as you study these lessons.

Chapter 1

Read Colossians 1 ☐ Check

1. (v. 1:1) How did Paul become an apostle? chosen by the will of God
2. (vv. 1:3-4) What was the outstanding characteristic for which Paul commended these people? Their faith in Christ Jesus and love for all of God's people
3. (v. 1:5) Where is the believer's hope? in heaven.

Note: The hope of these believers had been declared to them as the very heart of the truth of the Gospel, as you see in verse five. When the Gospel was originally preached to them, they evidently had been informed of that special hope which was theirs as members of the Body of Christ. It was this hope that characterized them as believers as well as their love for all the saints. What a testimony it would be if believers today were known by their hope. Our expectation is looking for the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will change our lowly bodies to be fashioned like His glorious body.

4. (vv. 1:5-6) What does the Gospel bring forth? fruit

5. (vv. 1:7-8) How is Epaphras described in this verse?

beloved co-worker and Christ's faithful servant

Note: Evidently, Epaphras was saved under the ministry of the Apostle Paul, possibly in Ephesus. After receiving instruction from Paul in Ephesus, he returned to Colossae to preach the Gospel. Certainly this man is a real blessing to the Apostle Paul and a real example to us as believers to share our faith with others.

6. (v. 1:9) Paul prayed that these people at Colossae would be filled with what?

complete knowledge of his will and spiritual wisdom and understanding.

7. (v. 10) How are these people to walk? In a way that honors and pleases the Lord

8. (v. 1:11) When we are strengthened with all might according to his glorious power, what is the result? We will have all the endurance and patience we need

9. (v. 1:12) Why are we to give thanks unto the Father?

Because He has enabled us to share in the inheritance that belongs to his people, who live in the light.

10. (v. 1:12-14) In whom do we have redemption and in what does it result?

The dear Son (Jesus) and the forgiveness of sins

11. (v. 1:15-18) List seven descriptive characteristics of the Lord Jesus Christ:

(v. 15) Christ is the visible image of the invisible God.

(v. 15) He existed before anything was created

(v. 16) through him God created everything

(v. 17) he holds all creation together

(v. 18) Christ is also the head of the church

(v. 18) He is the beginning,

(v. 18) So he is first in everything. firstborn from the dead)

“Christ, was before all things, for he was the Son, begotten, not created. Not only was he before all things, he was the Author of all things. What he is to the universe, he is, in a special sense, to the church (the Body of Christ), with which he has an even more intimate relation. By his death and resurrection, the church has been called into being, and from the bosom of his glory, he imparts to it his glorious life, as the head gives life to the body.”

(F. Godet, Commentary on Colossians)

12. (v. 1:19) Where does “all fullness dwell”? in Christ

13. (v. 1:20) How has God reconciled all things to Himself?
by means of Christ’s blood on the cross.

14. What three results of reconciliation by Christ are listed in verse 1:22?

1. We are holy
2. We are blameless
3. We are faultless

Note: The first term refers to inner consecration and the purity which it creates and fosters; the second shows the development of this purity in the life; the third expresses the result, that heart and life are therefore alike unchangeable.

15. (v. 1:24) In what did the Apostle Paul rejoice? In what he had suffered for them

16. (v. 1:25) The dispensation (stewardship) God gave Paul did what, as far as the Word of God was concerned? It enabled Paul to proclaim God's entire message to God’s holy people

17. (v. 1:26) How long was the mystery hidden? for centuries and generations past,

18. (v. 1:27) What is “the riches of the glory” of this mystery?
Christ lives in you and gives assurance of sharing his glory.

Note: Many people believe that Revelation is the book that completed the Bible. However, Revelation simply is an expansion of the prophecy that God had already given in the Old Testament concerning the Tribulation and the Kingdom. In reality, it is the revelation of the mystery concerning the church, the Body of Christ, which God revealed through the Apostle Paul that completed the Word of God. With the revelation of the mystery, the Word of God was made complete in the sense that his total plan for the ages has been made known. The Bible is a completed book, and therefore all of men’s claims that they have a particular revelation given from God are contrary to what we find in Colossians 1:25.

19. (v. 1:28) What was the desired result of Paul’s preaching?
to present them to God, perfect in their relationship to Christ.

Chapter 2

For in Christ lives all the fullness of God in a human body. So you also are complete through your union with Christ, who is the head over every ruler and authority. Colossians 2:9-10 NLT

Paul has just reminded the Colossians of who Christ is and what He has done. It only remains for them to understand what they possess in Him and in His work, that they may see the futility of the things which some are urging them to add to this perfectly complete salvation.

The Apostle Paul begins the epistle by expressing his concern for the Colossians, for though he has never seen them, he is nevertheless their apostle. He has heard that a doctrine is being preached to them which is called philosophy but which is in reality only vain deceit, because it is based upon the traditions of men, and points to outward observances (works) as having the attributes of salvation instead of to the work and teaching of Christ.

In this second chapter the Apostle Paul strongly condemns any system of man that would suggest we need something for our salvation other than the saving work of Christ, or in addition to the person of Christ. He condemns the vain traditions of men and the systems and principles of the world. This chapter speaks out against all of the religions of men, which lead people away from Christ instead of to the wondrous and blessed truth that we are “complete in Him.”

Read Colossians 2 ☐ Check

1. (vv. 2:1-2) Describe what Paul desired for these believers and for those in Laodicea.
to be encouraged and knit together by strong ties of love to have complete confidence that they understand God's mysterious plan,
2. (v. 2:3) Where are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge? in Christ
3. (v. 2:4) How is it that many people are deceived?
with well-crafted arguments.
4. (v. 2:5) What was it that gave the Apostle Paul such great joy and cause for rejoicing?
that they were living as they should and that their faith in Christ is strong.
5. (v. 2:6) How are we to walk in Christ? as we have accepted him as our Lord
6. (v. 2:7) What words in verse seven give the idea of permanency and strength?
let your roots grow down, let your lives be built on him
7. (v. 2:8) How is it that we might be spoiled (taken captive – NIV) ?
with empty philosophies and high-sounding nonsense that come from human thinking

Note: The Apostle Paul uses the word “spoil” in verse eight and suggests that it is possible for a believer to be spoiled through the various means described in this verse. This very pointed term describes what happens to an individual who becomes involved in traditions, legalism and human religion and moves away from the person of Jesus Christ. An individual who finds his contentment in the systems of the world instead of in Christ can definitely be called someone who is “spoiled.”

8. (v. 2:9) What is it that dwells in Christ? all the fullness of God

9. (v. 2:10) In whom are believers complete? in Christ

10. (vv. 2:11-12) Who performed the spiritual circumcision, baptism and resurrection mentioned in these verses? God

Note: The phrase “in which” in verse 11 must be understood from its usual significance as union with Jesus Christ. This union is created by the Spirit and effected by faith. These believers, through their living union with Christ, had enjoyed the privilege and were enjoying the results of spiritual circumcision. These show the real position of the believer in Christ and how the external rituals and traditions of men had nothing to offer. The believer is already in Christ circumcised, baptized and raised in newness of life.

11. (v. 2:13) What is the result of having been “quickened (made alive) together with him”?
all our sins have been forgiven

12. (v. 2:14) What did Christ do to the ordinances of the Law? He canceled them

13. (v. 2:15) What did Christ do to the principalities and powers?
he disarmed them and shamed them publicly and was victorious over them

14. (vv. 2:16-17) Why should we not let men judge us in meat, drink, or in observation of holy days? They are only shadows of the reality yet to come., namely Christ

Note: How wonderful it is to live in a day when God's message is not in shadowy figures and forms, but rather we have the completed revelation of God (Col. 1:25). The statement, "but the body is of Christ," suggests that in the person of Jesus Christ we have the full reality of all that we need or will ever need. Why search any further when we have Christ. How important it is for Christians today to realize that if by faith they are in Christ, they have been blessed with all spiritual blessings in the heavenly places in Him (Eph. 1:3).

15. (v. 2:19) What is the important work of the Head of the body?

It holds the whole body together

16. (vv. 2:20-22) What is our standing in regard to the rudiments (principles) of the world?

We have died to them in Christ and do not need to keep following rules of the world

Are these the principles of men or of God? of men

17. (v. 2:23) Do these worldly rules have any spiritual value? Yes _____ No X

Note: For centuries men have been imposing upon other men, as well as themselves, regulations, rules and traditions that bind and bring them into bondage. In these man-made systems there is self-gratification, which glorifies the flesh. One of the purposes of the second chapter of Colossians is to show that self-gratification does not honor God and, in fact, detracts from the reality that is in Christ. The completeness that we have in Christ does not gratify the flesh or the world but is the only way that a man can stand before God and be accepted. We trust that you have personally received Jesus Christ as your Savior and realize that as a result of your faith in Christ, you have been made complete in Him. God would simply have us acknowledge the completeness we have in Christ and live within the blessedness of such completeness.

Chapter 3

*Since you have been raised to new life with Christ, set your sights on the realities of heaven, where Christ sits in the place of honor at God's right hand. Colossians 3: 1 NLT

Note: Chapter three of Colossians is strongly practical in nature.

The apostle is actually suggesting to these believers that they should act in accordance with the privileges outlined in previous chapters. We suggest that you read carefully chapters one and two again before you begin this chapter. You might also read Ephesians, chapter five, and notice the similarity between it and chapter three of Colossians.

Read Colossians 3 ☐ Check

1. (v. 3:1) Where is Christ seated?
at God's right hand.

2. (v. 3:1) What are we to seek?
the realities of heaven

"Seek those things which are above" indicates that we have been raised up with Christ, and therefore we ought to seek things above. Any other search or desire would be inconsistent.

3. (v. 3:2) On what are we to set our affections? things of heaven,

Note: The Christian is not to despise the comforts he may meet with in life, but he is not to give them first priority. 'Things on earth' are inferior. 'Things above' are supreme and final. Attachment to things on the earth is unworthy of one who has risen with Christ, for they are beneath him, and the love of them is not in harmony with his position and where he is going. What can riches achieve for him who has treasure laid up in heaven?

4. (v. 3:3) Where is our life hid or hidden?
with Christ in God

5. (v. 3:4) What will happen to us when Christ appears?
We will share in all his glory.

6. (v. 3:5) What are we to do to our members which are upon the earth?
put to death

7. (v. 3:6) Why does the wrath of God come on the children of disobedience?
because of sin (evil listed in verse 5)

8. (vs. 3:7-8) What are we to put off?
anger, rage, malicious behavior, slander, and dirty language.

9. (vs. 3:9-10) What are we to put on? new nature

The image here of “putting off” and “putting on” is that of changing garments. What is our clothing? What do people see on the outside of our life?

10. (v. 3:11) Are there any distinctions in the Body of Christ? Yes _____ No X

Why? Christ is all that matters, and he lives in all of us

11. (vs. 3:12-13) What is to be the believer’s attitude towards forgiveness?
Forgive as Christ forgave you

Christians are to forgive one another because Christ has forgiven them, for His example has all the force of a formal command.

They are also to forgive one another as He has forgiven them----fully and freely, once and forever.

12. (v. 3:14) What are we to put on above all things? Love

13. (v. 3:15) To what have we been called and how?
to live in peace (as members of one body)

14. (v. 3:16) What are we to let the Word of Christ do? fill our lives in all its richness

15. (v. 3:17) What attitude are we to take toward everything we do in word or deed?
Do all things as a representative of the Lord, thanking God

What a difference in our lives there would be if we put verse 17 into effect. We so often are willing to do “something” to his honor and glory, but we keep back certain things for our honor and glory. What this verse is talking about, among other things, is taking self out of the picture and placing Christ as the purpose, motive, and object of all that we do.

16. (vs. 3:18-20) What is the instruction to wives? submit to their husbands

What is the instruction to husbands? love your wives

What is the instruction to children? obey their parents

17. (v. 3:21) What is the result of fathers provoking their children to anger?
they will become discouraged.

18. (vs. 3:22-23) What is the attitude of the believing servant?
They are to obey their masters and try to please them and work as though they were working for the Lord rather than for people.

19. (v. 3:24) From whom shall we receive the reward of the inheritance?
the Lord

Chapter 4

*Let your conversation be gracious and attractive so that you will have the right response for everyone. Colossians 4:6 NLT

This last chapter of Colossians is the most personalized of all the chapters in this book. People sometimes pass over these sections, thinking that they are not as practical as some of the other portions. However, we should realize that some of the most practical and blessed promises and possessions are spoken of in this section.

We must also realize that the greetings and personal notes to individuals give us insight into the nature and personality of the Apostle Paul.

Read Colossians 4 ☐ Check

1. (v. 4:1) What overruling principles are human masters to keep in mind when dealing with others, who also work for them?
they have a master in heaven
2. (V. 4:2) How does Paul encourage these believers to pray?
Devote yourselves to prayer with an alert mind and a thankful heart.
3. (v. 4:3) Why had Paul been put in prison?
for speaking about God's mysterious plan
4. (vv. 4:3-4) For what did Paul want these people to pray on his behalf?
That God would give them many opportunities to speak so that he would proclaim this message as clearly as he should.

Note: If the Apostle Paul wanted others to pray for him that he might have boldness in preaching the mystery of the Gospel, how much more should we ask for boldness. We see Paul's life and we find him one hundred times bolder than most of us; yet he prayed for boldness. Let us also pray for a holy boldness to speak for Christ!

5. (v. 4:5) How are we to walk toward those who are outside of the church?
Wisely
- 6.(v. 4:5) What are we to do with our time? make the most of every opportunity.

Note: Possibly the most precious possession we have is our time, yet how often we waste it. We would think a person out of his mind if we saw him throwing money into the trash. But what of a person who throws his time away as if it would never run out? We need to make the most of every opportunity to serve the Lord and others.

7. (v. 4:6) What is our speech to be like? gracious and attractive

8. (v. 4:7) How is Tychicus described?
a beloved brother and faithful helper

9. (v. 4:8) What was Tychicus' purpose?
to let them know how Paul and other were doing and to encourage them.

Paul realized that believers needed to be encouraged by one another. Tychicus was evidently a man who was blessed with the gift of encouragement. Consider Hebrews 3:13 on how we are to act toward one another.

10. (v. 4:9) What was the hometown of Onesimus? Colossae (one of your own people)

11. (v. 4:10) What did Paul call Aristarchus? a fellow prisoner

12. (v. 4:12) What did Epaphras do for these believers?
He always prayed earnestly for them

13. (vv. 4:13-14) What was Luke's profession? a doctor

14. Compare 2 Timothy 4:10-11 with Colossians 4:14 and give the two differing future reactions of Luke and Demas to Paul.
Demas left Paul and Luke stayed with him

15. (v. 4:17) What was Paul's advice to Archippus?
"Be sure to carry out the ministry the Lord gave you."

16. (v. 4:18) What were they to remember about Paul? his chains
