Acts - Lesson 1 of 7

Answer Sheet for English Standard Version (ESV)

Chapters 1 - 4

The Book of Acts, which continues the narrative that Luke began in his gospel, is especially important because it was the first written history of the Christian church. Acts concerns the very vital period in Christian history between the resurrection of Jesus and the death of the apostle Paul, the time when Christian ideas and beliefs were being formulated and when the organization of the church into a worldwide movement was being developed. Only with knowledge of this background can we understand the writing of the Gospels, as well as the other New Testament literature that followed.

The book has been called "The Acts of the Apostles", really a misnomer because Acts has very little to say concerning most of the original Twelve Apostles. Peter's activities are described at some length, and John and Philip are mentioned, but more than half of the book is about Paul and his connection with the Christian movement.

The Book of Acts contains 28 chapters. Of these the first 12 report events between the time of Jesus' last meeting with his disciples and the beginning of Paul's work as a Christian missionary. The remaining 16 chapters describe Paul's activities, beginning with his mission to the church at Antioch and ending with an account of his residence in Rome as a prisoner of the Roman government.

Who was Theophilus?

It is interesting to note that around 26% of the New Testament was written to Theophilus in Luke's writings. Luke's desire was to prove to Theophilus the truth of Jesus the Messiah's life, death and resurrection.

The name Theophilus appears in only two places in the Bible, Luke 1:1-4 and Acts 1:1-3. Luke wrote these two books around 61-63 AD which is during the time that the Apostle Paul was a prisoner in Rome and Luke was with him. (See 2 Timothy 4:11).

The name Theophilus is from the Greek word "theophilos" and means "friend of God" or "loved by God." The most common theory is that Theophilus was of high social standing and was a friend of Luke. In his Gospel Luke addressed Theophilus as "most excellent", which is a Roman title of respect and possibly of official importance.

1. (v. 1:3) Here we get an insight in what Jesus may have been teaching about during his last 40 days on earth, what was it?
speaking about the kingdom of God.
2. (v. 1:4) What was the last commandment Christ gave His disciples?
not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father,
3. (vs. 1:4-5) Jesus commanded them to wait in Jerusalem for the gift his Father promised, what was this gift? you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit
4. (v. 1:6) During the last times Jesus gathered together with His apostles, what was the big question the apostles had for Jesus?
"Lord, will you at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?"
5. (v. 1:7) How does Jesus tell the apostles when the Father will restore the kingdom of Israel? It is not for you to know the times or seasons that the Father has fixed by his own authority.

6. (v. 1:11) According to this verse how will Jesus return to earth from heaven?
in the same way as you saw him go into heaven.

7. (vs. 1:12-13) After Jesus ascended into heaven where did the apostles return to?
Jerusalem
they went up to the upper room, where they were staying,

8. (vs. 1:15-16) Who first spoke/predicted of the deed that Judas did?
the Holy Spirit spoke beforehand by the mouth of David concerning Judas

Note: Verse 1:16 starts the first major sermon from the apostle Peter where he quotes from Psalms 69:25, and Psalms 109:8. The sermon lasts through verse 1:22. The sermon showed amazing leadership that was surely recognized by all that heard it. We will learn in chapter 4 all the heavy weights that were in his audience.

9. (vs. 1:16-20) It first appears that Judas Iscariot's purpose was to try and spoil God's plan for His Son Jesus, but in these verses, it clearly shows it wasn't to spoil the plan, but to fulfill prophecy. What are the three points of the Prophecy that David wrote in Psalms?

- 1) May his camp become desolate
- 2) let there be no one to dwell in it
- 3) Let another take his office.

10. (vs. 1:21-22) After the betrayal and death of Judas Iscariot the apostles had to pick a replacement apostle. What was the main qualification listed in verse 22?
have accompanied us during all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, beginning from the baptism of John until the day when he was taken up from us—one

11. (v. 1:24) After deciding on Barsabbas and Matthias as candidates for apostleship what was the very first thing the apostles did before starting the process of election?
they prayed

Casting/Drew Lots Acts 1:26

The practice of casting lots is mentioned seventy times in the Old Testament and seven times in the New Testament. In spite of the many references to casting lots in the Old Testament, nothing is known about the actual lots themselves. They could have been sticks of various lengths, flat stones like coins, or some kind of dice; but their exact nature is unknown. The closest modern practice to casting lots is likely flipping a coin.

The New Testament nowhere instructs Christians to use a method similar to casting lots to help with decision-making. Now that we have the complete Word of God, as well as the indwelling Holy Spirit to guide us, there is no reason to be using games of chance to make decisions. The Word, the Spirit, and prayer are sufficient for discerning God's will today—not casting lots, rolling dice or flipping a coin.

Acts 2 is one of the most important chapters of Scripture. If you could only know one chapter of Scripture, Acts 2 may be the best one. It tells of the first preaching of the completed gospel of Christ. The gospel of Christ was not complete until the death, resurrection and ascension of Jesus into heaven. And in Acts 2 we have the first preaching of an apostle after Jesus took His throne in heaven. It's a chapter full of evidence to substantiate who Jesus is and where He is. It's a chapter that tells how 3,000 souls were saved and how every lost soul from that time to now, and until Christ returns, can also be saved.

1. (v. 2:2) Where were the apostles when they first noticed that the Holy Spirit was coming? all together in one place.
2. (vs. 2:2-4) How did the Holy Spirit show Himself to those assembled on the day of Pentecost?
a sound like a mighty rushing wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. And divided tongues as of fire appeared to them and rested on each one of them.

3. (v. 2:3) These flames or tongues of fire that came in with the Holy Spirit, where did they rest?
rested on each one of them.
4. (vs. 2:5-7) Why were all the Jews that were in Jerusalem from every nation so confused on that day of Pentecost?
Are not all these who are speaking Galileans?
5. Verse 2:14 Is the start of Peter's second major sermon. In what verse does he finish the sermon?
verse 36
6. (v. 2:21) Here Peter is quoting from the book of Joel.
What does it say about what happens to everyone who calls on the name of the Lord?
Shall be saved
7. (vs. 2:30-31) Why does Peter refer to David as a prophet in these particular verses?
he foresaw and spoke about the resurrection of the Christ, that he was not abandoned to Hades, nor did his flesh see corruption.
8. (vs. 2:36) Peter ends this sermon with the most profound statement yet about whom they crucified. He was both?
both Lord and Messiah.
9. (v. 2:38) Peter's words pierced the hearts of the crowd during this sermon. When they ask, "What shall we do", what two things did Peter tell them?
1. Repent 2. Be baptized
Then you will receive? the gift of the Holy Spirit.
10. (v. 2:41) At Pentecost about how many new believers were baptized and added to the church? three thousand

11. (v. 2:42) What did the new believers devote themselves to?

the apostles' teaching and the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

12. What was everyone in Jerusalem, who had received the Holy Spirit, doing as reported in verse 2:47?

praising God and having favor with all the people.

The Origins Of Pentecost

The historical and Biblical origins of what we know as Pentecost today can be found in Exodus 23:14-19, Leviticus 23:15-16 and Deuteronomy 16:10. One of 3 significant Jewish festivals, Pentecost is the Greek name for the Festival of Weeks, a prominent feast in the Jewish calendar that celebrated God giving them the 10 Commandments 50 days after the Exodus from Egypt. God instructed his people to celebrate the Festival of Weeks, which was to be held 7 full weeks (49 days) plus one day after Passover, equaling 50 days.

Also called the Feast of Harvest, this was when the Jews would present offerings of the first fruits of their spring crops. Jewish law required all adult Jewish men to come to Jerusalem from wherever they were living to personally be in attendance for the celebration.

The Holy Spirit Today

Because of Pentecost, Jesus can now be personally present with every believer around the globe, through his Holy Spirit. In fact, because the Holy Spirit dwells inside us (1 Cor. 3:16), it is something that can never be taken away. Jesus promised in John 14:26 that the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all things that I said to you.

1. (v. 3:6) When Peter and John went up to the temple they saw a lame man who was carried daily to the temple gate. When he saw Peter and John he expected to receive money. What did Peter say in response to him?

"I have no silver and gold, but what I do have I give to you.

In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk!"

Jewish Law on Prayer Times

Jewish law requires Jews to pray three times a day; the morning prayer is known as Shacharit, the afternoon prayer is known as Mincha, and the evening prayer is known as Maariv.

According to Jewish tradition, the prophet Abraham introduced Shacharit, the prophet Isaac introduced Mincha, and the prophet Jacob introduced Maariv.

2. (v. 3:6) Peter said to the beggar "I do not have silver or gold, but what I do have I give to you: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, walk".

What was the purpose of using; In the name of Jesus Christ? (see John 14:13)

Whatever you ask in my name, this I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

Peter's Second Sermon

Starting in the middle of Acts 3:11 Peter starts his second sermon with "Men of Israel".

Here, Peter is a bit more pointed than in his Pentecost sermon. He says that the people who are hearing the sermon are guilty of killing the Messiah. There are men in the audience who were for Barabbas rather than Jesus! Peter accuses the crowd and the Temple aristocracy of killing an innocent man who was vindicated by God by the resurrection and ascension.

It is also more pointed in its description of what will happen when they repent.

3. (vs. 3:11-12) After the lame man was healed why was Peter so quick to tell the crowd, "Why are you staring at us?"
why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we have made him walk?

4. (v. 3:19) What is the first thing that Peter tells the crowd they must do to wipe away their sins?
Repent

5. (vs. 3:22-23) Here Peter is quoting Moses from Deuteronomy and Leviticus, that "God will raise up a prophet like me from your countrymen".
What does God say will happen to the ones that will not listen to this Prophet?
(also see Leviticus 23:29)
every soul who does not listen to that prophet shall be destroyed from the people.'

6. (v. 3:25) How does Peter refer to the crowd?
You are the sons of the prophets

7. (v. 3:26) Quoting from the Old Testament in verse 3:25, it says "and in your seed ALL the families of the earth shall be blessed, but in Acts 3:26 who does it say will be blessed first.
the Jewish people

Praying in Jesus' Name

In chapter 3 Prayer in Jesus' name is taught in John 14:13-14, "And I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Son may bring glory to the Father. You may ask me for anything in my name, and I will do it." Some misapply this verse, thinking that saying "in Jesus' name" at the end of a prayer results in God always granting what is asked for. This is essentially treating the words "in Jesus' name" as a magic formula. This is absolutely unbiblical.

Praying in Jesus' name means praying with His authority and asking God the Father to act upon our prayers because we come in the name of His Son, Jesus. Praying in Jesus' name means the same thing as praying according to the will of God, "This is the confidence we have in approaching God; that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us. And if we know that he hears us—whatever we ask—we know that we have what we asked of him" (1 John 5:14-15). Praying in Jesus' name is praying for things that will honor and glorify Jesus.

1. (v. 4:1) While Peter and John were speaking to the people, who were the three groups that confronted them?
 1. the priests
 2. the captain of the temple
 3. the Sadducees

2. (v. 4:4) What did it take for the 5,000 to become Christians?
many of those who had heard the word believed,

3. (v. 4:7) After the high priest had Peter and John thrown in jail the high priest wanted to know two things about their sermon, what were they?
 1. By what power did you do this?
 2. By what name did you do this?

3. (vs. 4:8-10) Not that Peter believed this but what reason did Peter give the Jewish rulers and elders why he thought they were on trial?
if we are being examined today concerning a good deed done to a crippled man, by what means this man has been healed,

4. (v. 4:10) What reason did Peter give to the rulers and elders why the lame man was healed?
by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead—by him this man is standing before you well.

5. (v. 4:11) Peter quotes Psalm 118:22, the prophesy that predicted what Jesus would become. (Make sure and read Psalm 118:22)
The prediction was that He was? stone that was rejected by you, the builders, then became? the cornerstone.

6. (v. 4:13) What two things about Peter and John amazed/astonished/marveled the people, the priests, and the captain of the Temple as they were speaking?

1. uneducated,

2. common men,

7. (vs. 4:15-17) In your own words, why do you think the religious leaders did not want to admit that they had just witnessed a miracle?

8. (v. 4:18-20) What response did Peter and John have for the religious leaders when they told them not to speak of this or teach in the name of Jesus?

for we cannot but speak of what we have seen and heard.

9. (v. 4:21) As badly as the religious leaders wanted to punish John and Peter, why did they end up letting them go?

finding no way to punish them, because of the people, for all were praising God for what had happened.

10.(vs. 4:26-27) After the council, chief priest, and elders freed Peter and John they returned to the believers, they raised their voices together in prayer. Who all did they mention was against his Christ/Messiah/anointed one?

1. Herod

2. Pontius Pilate

3. the Gentiles

4. people of Israel

11. The Book of Acts is known as the History Book of how Christianity spread throughout the region, country, and world. Verses 32 thru the end of Acts, Chapter 4 describes how this band of believers, new Christ followers, first prepared themselves for this task. Name the two main key factors in verse 4:32 that had to take place to get all this started.

1. one heart 2. and soul

As a modern day Christian, what does this mean to you?

It is good to know and understand that scripture does cover the issue of abuse when it comes to support and help to others.

But... A double portion of prayer should always be used when dealing with these issues.

Verse 4:35b They distributed to each as anyone had need:

Unfortunately, this generosity of the early Christians soon began to be abused.

Later the Apostle Paul taught regarding who should be helped and how they should be helped.

Paul's directions were that:

- The church must discern who the truly needy are (1 Timothy 5:3).
- If one can work to support himself, he is not truly needy and must provide for his own needs (2 Thessalonians 3:10-12, 1 Timothy 5:8, 1 Thessalonians 4:11).
- If family can support a needy person, the church should not support them (1 Timothy 5:3-4).
- Those who are supported by the church must make some return to the church body (1 Timothy 5:5, 10).
- It is right for the church to examine moral conduct before giving support (1 Timothy 5:9-13).
- The support of the church should be for the most basic necessities of living (1 Timothy 6:8).
