Acts - Lesson 4 of 7

Chapters 13 - 16

Answer Sheet for New King James Version (NKJV)

Chapter 13

Please read all of Acts Chapter 13 ☐ Check

1. (v. 13:1) Chapter 13 starts off telling of four prophets and teachers that were at the church at Antioch. Please list them below.

1. Barnabas 2. Simeon
3. Lucius 4. Manaen

Manaen who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch: This Manaen mentioned here grew up with Herod the tetrarch. This was the same Herod who beheaded John the Baptist and presided over one of Jesus' trials (Luke 23:7-12).

Herod and Manaen grew up together, but went very different ways. One killed John the Baptist and presided over one of the trials of Jesus before His crucifixion. The other became a Christian and a leader in the dynamic congregation at Antioch.

2. (v. 13:2) As these men ministered/worshipping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit separates/sets apart/appoints two men, to which I have called. Name these two?

1. Barnabas 2. Saul

Note:

For the work to which I have called them. Acts 13:2b: God had a specific work He had appointed to Barnabas and Saul to do. Paul would later write in Ephesians 2:10: For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them. Here, God called Barnabas and Saul to those kind of good works.

The calling God had for the life of Paul had already been stated in Acts 9:15-16: He is a chosen vessel of Mine to bear My name before Gentiles, kings, and the children of Israel. For I will show him how many things he must suffer for My name's sake.

This was not a touchy-feely “feel good” call – it was a serious call to a serious ministry.

3. (v. 13:5) As you read through Acts, as well as the four Gospels, and you come across the name John, always stop and ask yourself: What John is this?

Verse 5 ends with: John was with them as their assistant/helper. Which John is this?

1. John the Baptist ☐

2. Apostle John ☐

3. John, Peter's father ☐

4. John Mark ☒

4. (vs. 13:6-10) After Saul and Barnabas had arrived at Paphos, they found a Jewish sorcerer and false prophet named Bar-Jesus, (also named Elymas). He was with the proconsul (governor), Sergius Paulus, a man of intelligence, who summoned Barnabas and Saul and sought to hear the word of God. But Elymas the sorcerer withstood them, seeking to turn the proconsul away from the faith. Then Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit, looked intently at him and said what?

“O full of all deceit and all fraud, you son of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness, will you not cease perverting the straight ways of the Lord?”

Notes:

Then Saul, who also is called Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit, looked straight at Elymas.

Acts 13:9.

It was common for people in that day to have names that were similar yet different according to the language or culture they were in. Certainly, Saul's given name was Saul, a Jewish name after the first king of Israel. But his Roman name was Paul – which meant “Little” and sounded similar to “Saul.”

5. (vs. 13:11-12) After Saul said what he said to Bar-Jesus in verse 10, what happened to him?

And immediately a dark mist fell on him, and he went around seeking someone to lead him by the hand.

6. (v. 13:12) What became of the proconsul (governor/deputy) after he witnessed what happened to Bar-Jesus?

Then the proconsul believed, when he saw what had been done, being astonished at the teaching of the Lord.

7. (v. 13:13) When Paul and his party/companions set sail for Perga, what did John do?

John, departing from them, returned to Jerusalem.

Notes:

The Antioch mentioned here in chapter 13, verse 14 is Antioch Pisidia, not to be confused with the main Christian hub, Antioch of Syrian (Acts 11:26).

They departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia Acts 13:14:

Perga was a coastal, harbor city, where the ship from Paphos came to the mainland. Antioch in Pisidia was about 135 miles inland, to the north. This general region was known as Galatia, and later Paul wrote a letter to these churches that is included in the New Testament.

Went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day and sat down. And after the reading of the Law and the Prophets Acts 13:15.

A first-century synagogue service followed a general order. Opening prayers were offered, and then there was a reading from the Law (the first five books of the Old Testament). Then, a reading from the Prophets. Then, if there was an educated person present, they were invited to speak on subjects related to the readings.

8. (vs. 13:14-23) As you read through the parts of Acts that describe Paul's three mission trips, you soon realize his pattern: When he would show up in a new town, he would go to the synagogue on the Sabbath and wait for a chance to speak. Most likely, chapter 13 verses 6-23 would always be his opening (in this instance, Paul's sermon lasted through verse 41). In his opening words, write out the verse that you think caused the most anger and emotion within the synagogue?

From this man's seed, according to the promise, God raised up for Israel a Savior—Jesus

9. (vs.13:44-46) On the following Sabbath almost the whole city came together to hear the word of God. When the Jews saw the crowd they were filled with envy and jealousy; so they slandered Paul and argued against whatever he said.

What was Paul's and Barnabas's response?

"It was necessary that the word of God should be spoken to you first; but since you reject it, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, behold, we turn to the Gentiles.

10. Based on Acts 13:48, if you believe in the Good News of Jesus Christ, what does that mean about yourself? all who were chosen for eternal life became believers.

Note on Acts 13:48

Luke's writings here make a statement about predestination. Some of the Jews and Gentiles were "appointed" or chosen to be saved, and it is those who believed.

(see also Romans 8:30; Ephesians 1:3–6, 11). This shouldn't be hard to accept.

Anyone reading this can be saved. In order to know if you are chosen/appointed/ordained, just believe. (John 3:16–18; Romans 10:9).

If you believe, you know you were chosen!

11. (vs. 13:49-51) How did Paul and Barnabas respond to the Jewish leaders after they stirred up/incited the prominent women and chief men against them?

they shook off the dust from their feet against them, and came to Iconium.

1. (vs. 14:1-6) At Iconium Paul and Barnabas went into the Jewish synagogue. There they spoke effectively so that a great number of Jews and Greeks believed. But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles and poisoned their minds against Paul and Barnabas . The city was divided, part with the Jews, and part with the apostles. What happened as a result?

They fled to Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and to the surrounding region.

2. (v.14:7) After Paul and Barnabas got run out of Iconium, they fled to the surrounding area. What did they do as soon as they got there?

they were preaching the gospel there.

3. (vs. 14:8-10) In Lystra, Paul healed a certain man who had crippled feet since birth. What did Paul observe about this man before he was healed?

seeing that he had faith to be healed,

4. (vs. 14:11-14) In your own words, tell of the misunderstanding of the Lystra people after they thought it was just Paul that had healed the man with crippled feet?

4. (vs. 14:19-20) What became of Paul after some Jews arrived from Antioch and Iconium, won the crowds to their side, and stoned him and dragged him out of the city for dead ?

when the disciples gathered around him, he rose up and went into the city.

5. (vs. 14:21-22) When Paul and Barnabas returned to Lystra, Iconium and Antioch of Pisidia and were strengthening the disciples, they encouraged them to remain true to the faith. Rereminding them of what?

"We must through many tribulations enter the kingdom of God."

6. (v. 14:23) Before they left the region, what did Paul and Barnabas do at every church?

appointed elders

7. (v. 14:27) When Paul and Barnabas had returned to Antioch in Syria, they called the church together. What was the main report to the church?

they reported all that God had done with them, and that He had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles.

Jerusalem Council:

In the earliest days of the Christian church, the church was comprised predominantly of Jews. In Acts chapter 8 the gospel spread to the Samaritans (who were ethnically mixed Jews-Gentiles), and many Samaritans received Jesus Christ as Savior. In Acts chapter 10, the Apostle Peter was the first to take the gospel specifically to the Gentiles, and many received Christ as Savior. In Acts chapters 13—14, Paul and Barnabas had a very fruitful ministry among the Gentiles. All of these Gentiles turning to faith in Christ caused concern among the Jewish believers, first expressed in Acts 11:1–18, and the issues that caused concern were ultimately decided upon at the Jerusalem Council (Acts 15).

The issues centered on two questions:

Do Gentiles first have to become Jews before they can become Christians?

Do Gentiles have to observe the Mosaic Law after they become Christians?

1. (v. 15:1) While Paul and Barnabas were at Antioch of Syria, some men from Judea arrived and began to teach what false teachings?

“Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved.”

2. (v. 15:2) When persuasion did not end the issue, what was decided that Paul, Barnabas, and certain others should do?

go up to Jerusalem, to the apostles and elders, about this question.

3. (v. 15:5) When they came to Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church and the apostles and elders, to whom they reported everything. Once there they discovered two other demands that some of the believing Pharisees had. What were they?

1. necessary to circumcise them,

2. keep the law of Moses.

4. (v. 15:22) The Jerusalem Council wisely sent two members of its own community with Paul and Barnabas back to Antioch, the place where the whole dispute arose.

What were these two men's names?

1. Judas 2. Silas

5. (v. 15:23) The Jerusalem Council wrote a letter of church doctrine that was sent back with Paul and Barnabas stating the decision of the council. Who was this letter addressed to? The Jews or the Gentiles? the Gentiles

6. (v. 15:27) Why did the Council send Judas and Silas back with Paul and Barnabas with the written decision?

who will also report the same things by word of mouth.

7. (v.15:29) There were things that the council wrote that they must abstain from. What were they?

abstain from things offered to idols, from blood, from things strangled, and from sexual immorality.

8. (vs. 15:36) Some time later, after Judas and Silas had encouraged and strengthened the believers, Paul and Barnabas made a decision to do what?

"Let us now go back and visit our brethren in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they are doing."

What did Silas decide to do? He went with Paul.

Notes:

John Mark had previously left the missionary party, under what seemed to be less than honorable circumstances (Acts 13:13). This probably made Paul unwilling to trust him on future endeavors.

9. (v. 15:38) Why did Paul not want to take John Mark on his and Barnabas' next trip?

they should not take with them the one who had departed from them in Pamphylia, and had not gone with them to the work.

10. (vs. 15:38-40) After the sharp disagreement between Paul and Barnabas over John Mark, what did they decide to do?

Barnabas took Mark and sailed to Cyprus but Paul chose Silas and departed.

They parted from one another:

So Paul (accompanied by Silas) and Barnabas (accompanied by Mark) split, each going out to different fields of ministry.

It is hard to know if their personal relationship was strained for a prolonged period.

As Christians, we are commanded to resolve relationship problems with others before we present ministry to God (Matthew 5:23-24). It is always wrong to step over people in the name of ministry, and when it happens it must be made right.

There is no doubt God used this division; but this can never be casually used as an excuse for carnal division. God can redeem good out of evil, yet we are all held accountable for the evil we do, even if God ends up bringing good out of the evil. Either Paul or Barnabas – probably both – had to get this right with God and each other.

Later, Paul came to minister with John Mark and to value his contributions to the work of God (Colossians 4:10; Philemon 1:24; 2 Timothy 4:11). We don't know if it was Mark who changed or Paul who changed. Probably God had a work to do in both of them!

1. (v. 16:1-3) For the first time we are introduced to Timothy. What three things do we learn about him?

1. the son of a certain Jewish woman who believed
2. father was Greek
3. was well spoken of by the brethren

2. (v. 16:3) What did Timothy have to have done before he could go with Paul?
circumcised

Why did Timothy have to have this done before he could go with Paul?

because of the Jews who were in that region, for they all knew that his father was Greek.

3. (vs. 16:6-10) After the Holy Spirit forbidden/prevented them from preaching the word in Asia, they passed by Mysia and came down to Troas. There, Paul had a vision of a man from Macedonia pleading with him. What did Paul conclude from this vision?

that the Lord had called us to preach the gospel to the Macedonians.

4. (vs. 16:16-19) Write down in your own words why Paul and Silas were seized and dragged to face the authorities, after they had met a female slave?

5. (vs. 16:19-21) After the incident with the female slave, Paul and Silas were arrested by the magistrates. What was the charge that the people were bringing against them?

they teach customs which are not lawful for us, being Romans, to receive or observe.

6. (vs. 16:25-31) About midnight, while Paul and Silas were in jail, they were singing hymns to God, and the other prisoners were listening. Suddenly there was a violent earthquake and all the prison doors flew open and everyone's chains came loose. The jailer woke and drew his sword and was about to kill himself, because he thought the prisoners had escaped. Paul shouted, "Don't harm yourself! We are here". The jailer rushed in and fell trembling before Paul and Silas. What did he ask?

"Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

How did they reply?

"Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved, you and your household."

7. (vs. 16:35-39) When the jailers came and told Paul and Silas that the magistrates had ordered that they be released. But Paul said to the officers: "They beat us publicly without a trial, and threw us into prison. And now do they want to get rid of us quietly? No! Let them come themselves and escort us out." What did the magistrates discover about Paul and Silas that alarmed them? (also read Acts 22:28, Act 16:37)

They were Romans citizens

A verse to underline and memorize

*And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption.
Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, clamor,
and evil speaking be put away from you, with all malice.
And be kind to one another, tenderhearted,
forgiving one another, even as God in Christ forgave you*
Ephesians 4:30-32 (NKJV)
