John Chapter 9

Notes: In John 9, Jesus and His disciples encounter a man born blind. Turning to Jesus, the disciples ask in verse 2, “Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?”. The disciples’ question reflects the belief that suffering is always linked to personal sin (or the sin of one’s parents). Jesus challenges this belief, saying in verse 3, “It was not that this man sinned, or his parents, but that the works of God might be displayed in him”.

Jesus’ statement in John 9:3, “That the works of God might be displayed in him,” reveals the purpose for the man’s blindness. God has a purpose for every kind of suffering. In God’s hands, suffering is not meant to break us but to build us up: “We rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope” Romans 5:3–4, ESV.

1. (vs. 9:1-2) When Jesus and His disciples passed by the blind man, what question did they ask Jesus?

who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?

2. (v. 9:3) Why did Jesus say this man was blind?

Neither this man nor his parents sinned, but that the works of God should be revealed in him.

3. (v. 9:6) What did Jesus do to prepare for the miracle of getting the blind man to see?

He spat on the ground and made clay with the saliva; and He anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay.

4. (v. 9:7) After preparing the mans eyes to see, what did Jesus tell the blind man to go do?

"Go, wash in the pool of Siloam"

5. (v.9:14) In your own words, why does this verse mention that it was on the Sabbath that Jesus cured the blind man?

6. (v. 9:16) Why did some of the Pharisees say, "This Man is not from God"?

He does not keep the Sabbath.

7. (v.9:17) When the Pharisees and others ask the man again. "What do you have to say about Him who has opened your eyes?"

"He is a prophet."

8. (v. 9:21) The Jewish leaders still did not believe that he was blind and had received his sight. They sent for the man's parents to ask them if he had his sight restored. How did his parents respond?

He is of age; ask him. He will speak for himself.

9. (v. 9:25) When the man was called / summoned for the second time, the Jewish leaders asked him to give God the glory. They said they knew the man that he said gave him his sight, was a sinner. How did he respond to them?

Whether He is a sinner or not I do not know. One thing I know: that though I was blind, now I see.

10.(vs. 9:33-34) After going back and forth between the Jewish leaders who were saying Jesus was just a sinner, and the man, he made what statement that caused the leaders to cast / threw him out?

If this Man were not from God, He could do nothing.

11. (vs. 9:35-38) When Jesus heard that they had cast / thrown the man out, He found him and asked him what question? Do you believe in the Son of God?

How did the man answer Jesus? Who is He, Lord, that I may believe in Him?

How did Jesus answer back? You have both seen Him and it is He who is talking with you.

What was the man's response after that? Lord, I believe!

Understanding John 9:39-41

The verses can be confusing when compared to statements such as John 3:17 and John 12:47. In those verses, Jesus states He did not come "to condemn" or "to judge." Here, Jesus states He came "for judgment." The reason for Jesus' earthly ministry was to secure our salvation; this required judgment on and against sin. The result of this ministry, however, is the eventual condemnation of those who reject Him.

*Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life,
but whoever rejects the Son will not see life,
for God's wrath remains on them*

John 3:36.

The reference to those who see versus those who are blind, summarizes the entire incident with the blind beggar and the religious critics. Those who admit their need and trust in God are those who will be granted sight. The blind man was given both sight and knowledge by Jesus in response to sincere faith. Those who are arrogant and presume they already know, will be hardened by the presence of Jesus. Despite their knowledge (John 5:39–40), they'll allow their own prejudice to blind them (2 Corinthians 4:4), making them incapable of understanding what they don't want to understand anyway (John 7:17).

Notes: This chapter gives us a beautiful portrayal of Jesus Christ as the Good Shepherd. He is the “gate” and “gatekeeper” to the sheep pen, meaning that only through Jesus can anyone be made right with God and thereby enter the sheepfold (verses 1–3). The sheepfold is comprised of members of God’s kingdom. Jesus is the true Shepherd who leads, cares for, and protects His sheep, even to death (verses 3–15). As the Good Shepherd, Jesus explains, “I have other sheep that are not of this sheep pen. I must bring them also. They too will listen to my voice, and there shall be one flock and one shepherd” John 10:16.

Who are these “other sheep that are not of this sheep pen”?

Most scholars understand that the sheep pen introduced at the beginning of the chapter represents first-century Jewish believers. Initially, Jesus focused His ministry on “the people of Israel—God’s lost sheep” (see Matthew 10:5–6). At Pentecost, “God-fearing Jews from every nation under heaven” were converted to Christianity (Acts 2:5). But, eventually, Peter and Paul would take the message of Christ’s salvation to the Gentiles and to the farthest reaches of the Roman world (Acts 10:1—11:30; 13). The true mission of God’s heart has always been to have one flock comprised of disciples from “every tribe and language and people and nation” (Revelation 5:9; see also Matthew 28:18–19; Isaiah 49:6).

1. (v. 10:16) In verse 10:16 Jesus tells about other sheep that He has that are not in this fold / pen. In your own words, who do you think Jesus is talking to and who is he talking about?

2. (vs. 10:20-21) Some in the crowd were sticking up for Jesus, that He can’t have a demon because of what miracle that He had just done?

Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?

Verse 22 comes after a leap in time. Everything from chapters 7, 8, 9, and so far in chapter 10 occurred in a single sequence at the Feast of Booths. That festival is held in the fall. That narrative ended with the crowd's divided reaction to Jesus' teachings in verses 19-21. Verse 22 moves John's gospel ahead several months, to the Feast of Dedication, which occurs in early winter. The Feast of Dedication is not one of Israel's mandatory celebrations, but it has become one of its most symbolic. Today, it is more commonly referred to as the Festival of Lights, or Hanukkah.

- 3. (vs. 10:29-30) As Jesus was talking to the Jewish crowd and leaders about who He was through the parable of the good Sheperd, What statement does He end it with that causes the Jews to want to stone Him?

I and My Father are one.

- 4. (vs. 10:31-32) How did Jesus ask the Jewish crowd why they wanted to stone Him?

Many good works I have shown you from My Father. For which of those works do you stone Me?

- 5. (v. 10:33) Why did the Jews say they were going to stone Jesus?

for blasphemy, and because You, being a Man, make Yourself God.

- 6. (vs. 10:37-38) In proving His point to the Jews, in your own words, tell how Jesus asked them to examine His works to know who He is.

- 7. (vs. 10:40-42) After Jesus escaped the stoning He went back across the Jordan river. Many came to Him and made this point about what John (the Baptist) had told them.

John performed no sign, but all the things that John spoke about this Man were true.

8. (v. 10:42) After Jesus crossed back over the Jordan River, what was the result of all the ordeal that took place after the Jews tried to stone Jesus two different time?

And many believed in Him there.

1. (v. 11:1) What town did Mary, Martha, and Lazarus live in? Bethany

2. (v. 11:4) How did Jesus respond when He heard that Lazarus was sick?

This sickness is not unto death,

What was the reason for his sickness?

for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified through it.

Notes: Chapter 11 contains one of the most famous stories of the Bible: the resurrection of Lazarus. Scripture gives few details about the relationship between Jesus and the three siblings: Mary, Martha, and Lazarus. We know that Jesus spent some time in their home (Luke 10:38–42), was greatly honored by Mary (Mark 14:3–9), considered a teacher by the two sisters (John 11:28), and that His love of the family was well-known (John 11:36). Despite that closeness, this narrative opens with Jesus some distance away, avoiding the hostile religious leaders of Jerusalem (John 10:39–40).

Here, Jesus demonstrates great compassion and quietly weeps with Mary and Martha. This moment is crucial in our understanding of the nature of God. Jesus has purposefully arranged this situation in order to make a clear point. This miracle is another "sign" of His divine nature. Moments from now, Jesus will bring Lazarus back from the dead. And yet, He expresses clear emotion out of love for His friends. This is a milestone moment in the Bible, reminding us that God really, truly understands the pain we feel while we wait to see His plans unfold (John 11:35–37).

3. (vs. 11:14-15) After Jesus' disciples thought Lazarus was just asleep, Jesus said to them plainly, "Lazarus is dead". Then what did He say to His disciples?

I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, that you may believe.

5. (v. 11:18) How far was Bethany from Jerusalem? two miles

6. (v. 11:20) Which of Lazarus' sister went out to greet Jesus, which one stayed home?

7. (v. 11:21) What did Martha say to Jesus about Lazarus?

Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died.

(v. 11:23) How did Jesus respond to her?

Your brother will rise again.

8. (v. 11:24) What did Martha think Jesus meant when He said, "Your brother will rise again"?

I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day.

9. (v. 11:25) How did Jesus reply to Martha after she said "I know he will rise again?"

I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in Me, though he may die, he shall live.

10.(v. 11:26) What question did Jesus ask Martha after He said,

"I am the resurrection and the life. Anyone who believes in me will live"?

Do you believe this?

11. (v. 11:32) When Jesus was at the place where He met Martha, what did Mary say to Him about her brother Lazarus?

Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died.

12. (v. 11:37) As the Jews that were with Mary were showing Jesus where Lazarus' body was laid, and He was weeping, some of these Jews were saying what about Jesus?

Could not this Man, who opened the eyes of the blind, also have kept this man from dying?

13. (vs. 11:39-40) When Jesus and Mary came to the tomb of Lazarus, what did Martha say when Jesus said, "Take away this stone"?

Lord, by this time there is a stench, for he has been dead four days.

What did Jesus say to Martha after she said this?

Did I not say to you that if you would believe you would see the glory of God?

14. (v. 11:42) What did Jesus say to His Father that He wanted people to believe before He cried out with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come forth / out"?

that You (the Father) sent Me

15. (vs.11:45-46) What happened to many of the Jews that were with Mary and saw Jesus raise Lazarus from the dead? They believed in Him

What did some of the others do? told the Pharisees what Jesus did.

16. (vs. 11:47-48) What was the concern of the chief / leading priests and Pharisees once they had heard that Jesus had raised Lazarus from the grave?

If we let Him alone like this, everyone will believe in Him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and nation.

17. (v. 11: 57) The Passover feast was near, the chief priests and Pharisees knew Jesus would be coming to Jerusalem. What command did they give about Jesus?

if anyone knew where He was, he should report it, that they might seize Him.

Notes: *The next day a great multitude that had come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, John 12:12:

This was the large crowd that came for the greatest holiday of Judaism – Passover.

Many of them came from Galilee. When they came, they came with lambs. Jewish law required that the Passover lamb live with the family for at least three days before sacrifice (Exodus 12:3-6). When Jesus came and went into Jerusalem, lambs for sacrifice would surround him and everyone else.

8. (v. 12:13) When the large crowd had heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, they took palm branches and went out to meet Him, crying out / shouting what?

You see that you are accomplishing nothing. Look, the world has gone after Him!

11. (v. 12:23) In your own words, what does Jesus mean when He makes the statement “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified”?

Understanding John 12:24-25

As He often does when making a bold point, Jesus starts by saying “most assuredly / verily verily / I tell you the truth / truly truly” phrase. This comes from a repetition of the word amen, which invokes agreement. Used at the end of a statement—as many do with prayer—it implies agreeing with something already said or believed. Used at the beginning of a remark, as here, implies it's the first-hand original knowledge of the one speaking.

Paul expands on this metaphor of planted seeds in 1 Corinthians 15:36–42. The seed which is planted seems to “die.” It sacrifices everything and is lost, so far as it appears. In truth, the seed must be planted in order to become what it was always meant to be. Just as the seed must “lose its life” to fulfill its ultimate purpose, so too does each person need to “lose” their worldly life in order to gain eternity (John 12:25). That doesn't literally mean physical death or martyrdom, but rather the willingness to sacrifice everything in order to follow Christ (Mark 8:35–36).

Understanding John 12:27

This verse provides a fascinating glimpse into the humanity of Jesus Christ. Here He describes Himself the same way He did when approaching Lazarus' grave (John 11:33). It's the same term John chose to depict the turbulence of a pool of water (John 5:7). All of these passages use the Greek root word tarassō, often translated as “troubled,” implying an agitation or disturbance. As one fully human, Jesus experienced the same emotions as anyone else (Hebrews 4:15), and in this case that means the anxiety one would expect, given all He knows of what's to come (John 19:1; 19:16).

11. (vs. 12:42-43) Many, even among the leaders, believed in Jesus. But because of the Pharisees they would not openly acknowledge their faith because of what fear?

lest they should be put out of the synagogue;

Why did they fear this?

or they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

12. (vs. 12:44-50) In verses 44 thru 50 Jesus makes the statement, “He who believes in Me, believes not in Me but in Him who sent Me.” Jesus is talking about God the Father. At the end of these verses, what is God the Father’s command?

everlasting life. Therefore, whatever I speak, just as the Father has told Me, so I speak.
